BMJ Case Reports: publishing, sharing and learning through experience

Last 7 days Archive About us Submit an article Become a Fellow Help

Welcome to BMJ Case Reports

BMJ Case Reports is an award winning journal that delivers a focused, peer-reviewed, valuable collection of cases in all disciplines so that healthcare professionals, researchers and others can easily find clinically important information on common and rare conditions. This is the largest single collection of case reports online with more than 7000 articles from over 70 countries. Find out from the Editor why you should Become a Fellow so you can join this rapidly growing community and make use of any published content for teaching - you can also join in the debate on our Editor's Blog.

Vulvar adenocarcinoma: the visual resemblance with a vulvar abscess
Though vulvar cancer is not very common, the misdiagnosis of malignancy as an abscess by practicing gynaecologists is a mistake, which can prove costly to the patient. This article focuses attention on this aspect...
